

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35405

May 27, 1985

LUCY KUBISZYN, Editor

MUSICALE SCHEDULED

The music department of Shelton State will present its annual musicale on Monday, May 27, at 12:30 p.m. in the music room of the junior college. The program will feature soloists in voice and piano and conclude with two choral selections.

Vocal students who will appear on the program are: Kristen Malone; Jenny Lou Ambrose; Sarah Lumpkin; Melony Kirkley; Joe Tubbs; Bryon Jones; Steve Seale.

Piano students who will be featured include Mickey Fleming, Pam Winters, Patsy Mitchell, Jane Ellen Seale.

Students appearing on the program are students of Eleanor McElvy, Anne Snow Duraski and Syble Coats. The Shelton Singers are under the direction of Mrs. Joy Dendy. The program is open to the public.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED FOR YOUNG PEOPLE'S WRITING CONTEST

The winners for the Young People's Writing Contest sponsored by Shelton State Community College have been announced by Carole Johnson, contest coordinator. The contest was open to all area high school students.

The first place short story entry was awarded to Michael Lusk, Tuscaloosa Christian. Other winners were: second place short story entry, Mike Lower, Brookwood High School; third place short story entry, Scott Channell, Tuscaloosa County High School.

First place in the poetry entry was David Moore, Tuscaloosa County High School. Second place went to Johnny Winters, Tuscaloosa County High School, and third place poetry entry was awarded to Mike Lower, Brookwood High School.

LPN GRADUATION SCHEDULED

The School of Practical Nursing of Shelton State Community College will hold its graduation exercises for the spring on Thursday, May 30, at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of the junior college. Instructors for this class are Dorothy S. Beams, Frances B. Day, Euradell B. Fredd, Joyce M. Robinson.

Speaker for the program is Jacqueline C. Cook, branch manager and nursing supervisor of Home Health Care.

Twenty-two nurses will receive diplomas. They are: Sandra Marie Bailey; Melissa S. Beeker; Teresa Benefield; Margaret A. Black; Priscilla L. Burt; Ida Jacobs Chankler; Gwendolyne Little Cotham; Mary Crossland Dawn Estes; Bobbie W. Garner; Sheila F. Grayson; Gloria T. Harris; Holiday D. Henderson; Virginia D. Henderson; Virginia L. Lovin; Valerie Mason; Alfreda Murphy; Donna W. Price; Rita Bradley Thomas; Alice Kaye Walker; Melanie E. Wlton; Max White; Rhonda L. Wilson.

HONORS NIGHT SCHEDULED

Shelton State's annual honors night program will be held Friday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m, in the junior college auditorium. Chairman for the event is Brenda Ryan.

This is the event which is held each year where the outstanding students of the college are honored. Highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the Leo Sumner Award, the highest honor bestowed on anyone at Shelton State Community College.

Graduation

STRONG TO SPEAK AT GRADUATION

State Senator Frances "Sister" Strong will be the keynote speaker for the 1985 graduation services for the Junior College Division. Seventy-nine graduates are scheduled to receive diplomas. The program is schedueld to begin at 4 p.m on Sunday, June 2, 1985.

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER QUARTER IS NOW THROUGH FIRDAY, JUNE 14. CLASSES ARE SCHEDULED TO BEGIN ON MONDAY, JUNE 17.

FINAL EXAMS SCHEDULED

All exams for Spring quarter will be held this week. Exams scheduled for Wednesday classes will be given on Wednesday, May 29. Thursday classes will take exams on Thursday, May 30, and Friday class exams are scheduled for Friday, May 31.

SUMMER AEROBICS

Summer aerobic classes by Amy and Cheree are scheduled to begin on June 10. For information on the schedule, call 556-2541.
